

ENGLISH version

Tiger Heart

Comics
Vol.01

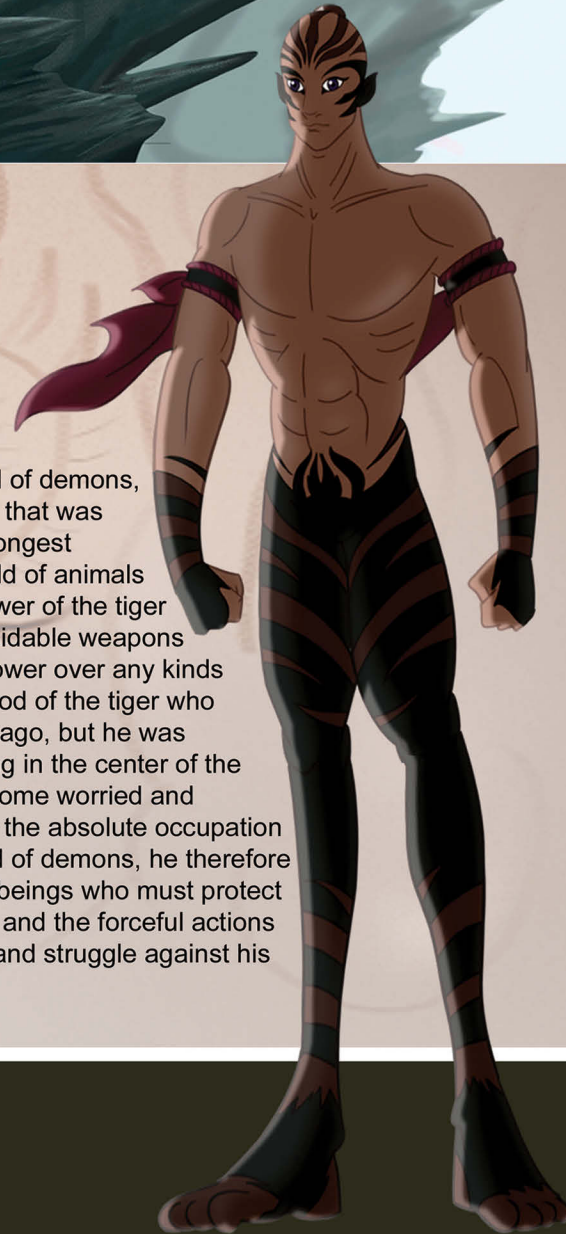

Tiger Heart

Premise

There is the legend saying of the four worlds of the fighter, namely the world of demons, the world of machinery, the world of animals and the world of human beings that was known as the most weakened stock where the world of demons was the strongest lineage who tried to dominate the remaining three stocks. However, the world of animals had become the world of the extreme power of the fighters, that was the power of the tiger heart, a divine being who possessed the strength of power in using the formidable weapons and discovered the truth of fighting using only the body that has the superpower over any kinds of weapon and also to protect this world by integrating all the forces into a god of the tiger who had been told to be disappeared from this world for several thousand years ago, but he was seen by someone who told mouth to mouth that this tiger god had been living in the center of the forest in the world of animals. This saying made the world of demons to become worried and started to hunt this tiger god to take his heart to be integrated into power for the absolute occupation of all worlds. This tiger god knew very well that he was pursued by the world of demons, he therefore evaded into the world unexpected by his enemy, that is the world of human beings who must protect this knowledge. The young active businessman who did not like the fighting and the forceful actions was conferred by the tiger god this power, making him to decide to change and struggle against his new life that he had to be obliged and discovered his righteousness.

Red opera

#01

Story & Art
by Surapong

Bernard, the red side looks like the loser!

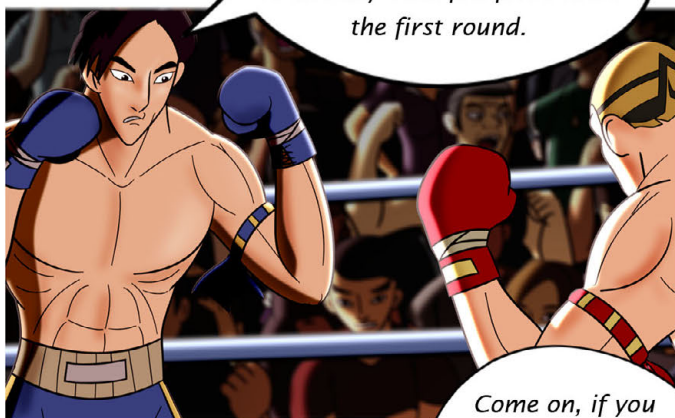

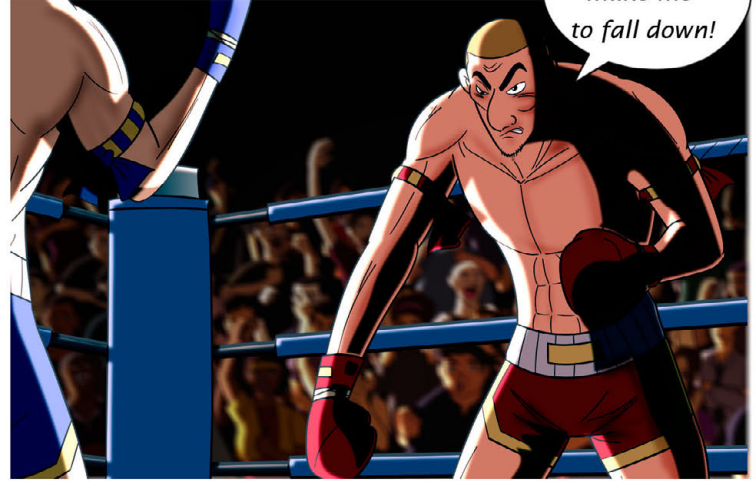

Thongkla, the blue side looks like the winner now!

You can't make me to fall down!

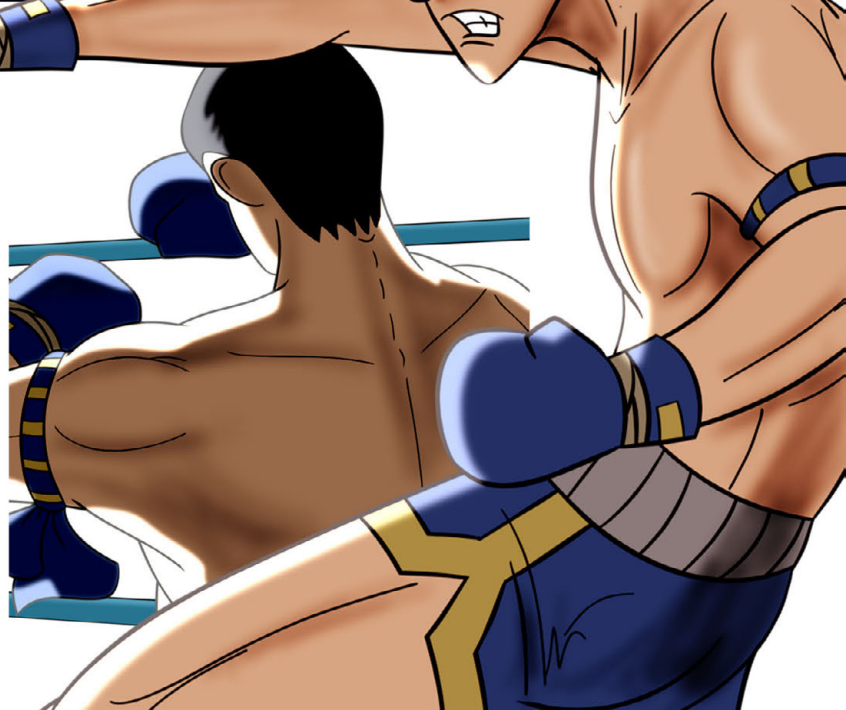

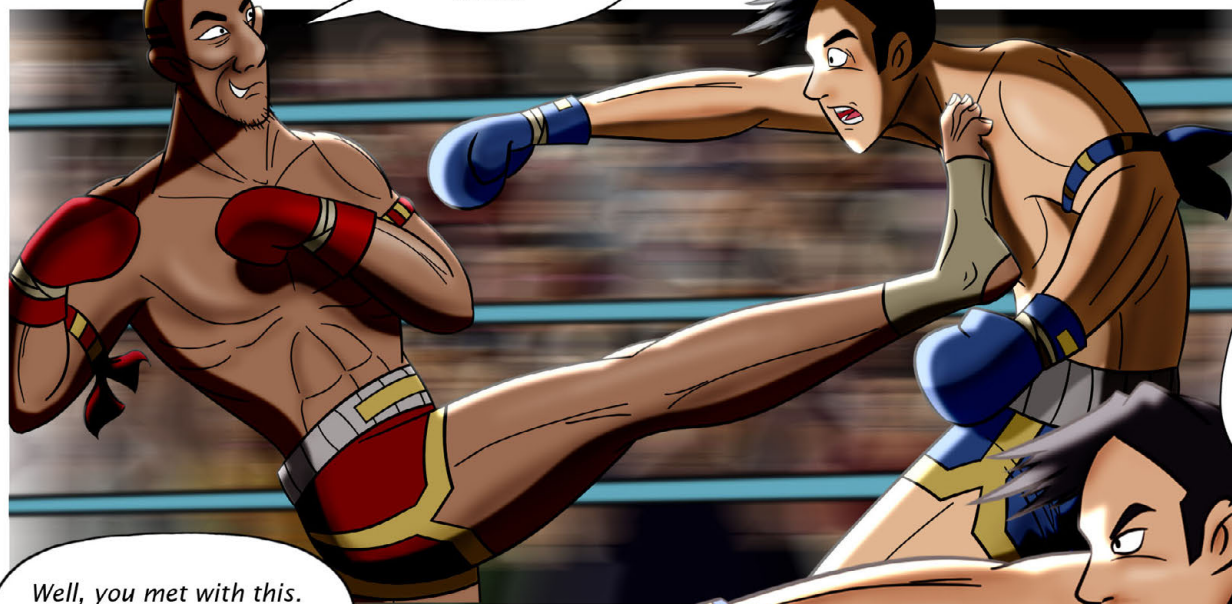

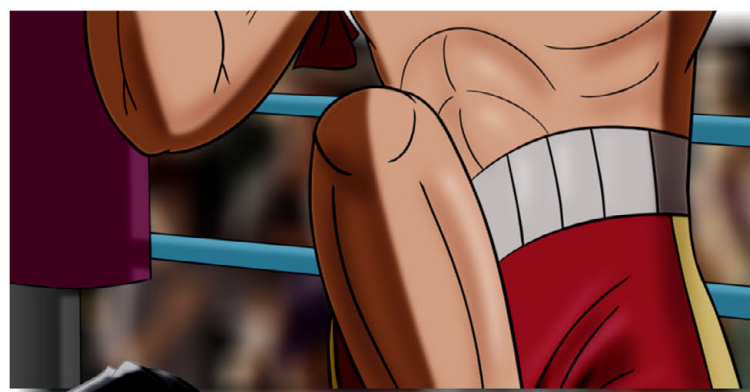

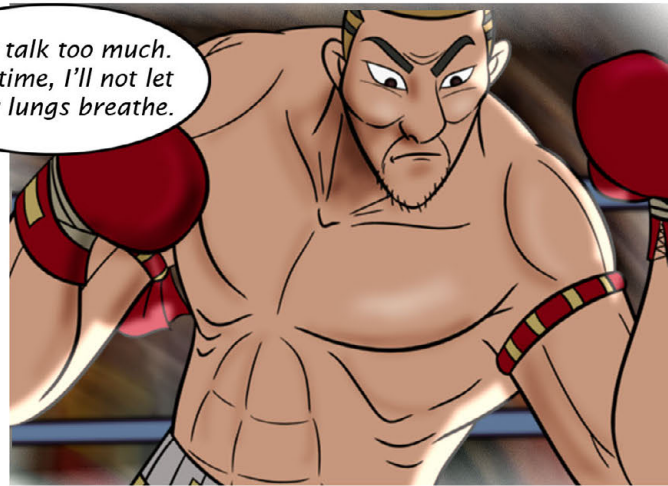

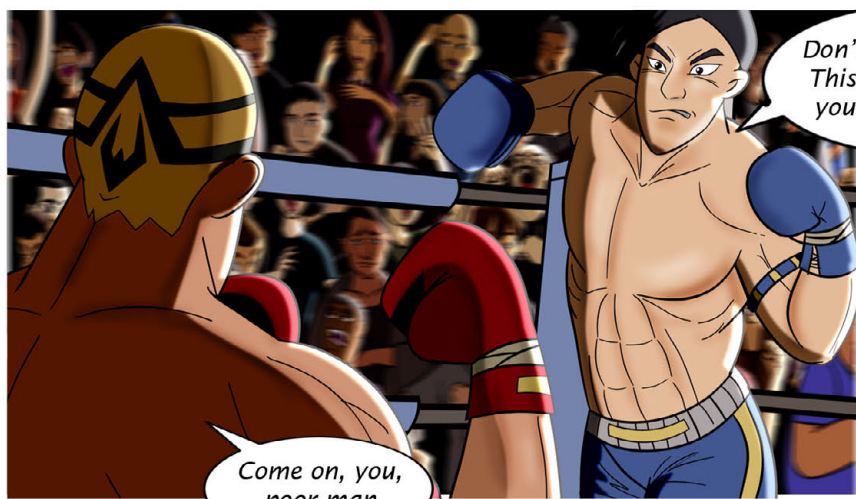

It's not sure like that, friend. How much is your power that you'll defend my legs; you've already used full force since the first round.

Come on, if you think you can knock me. You can't win my points.

Try it; you think I can't knock you.

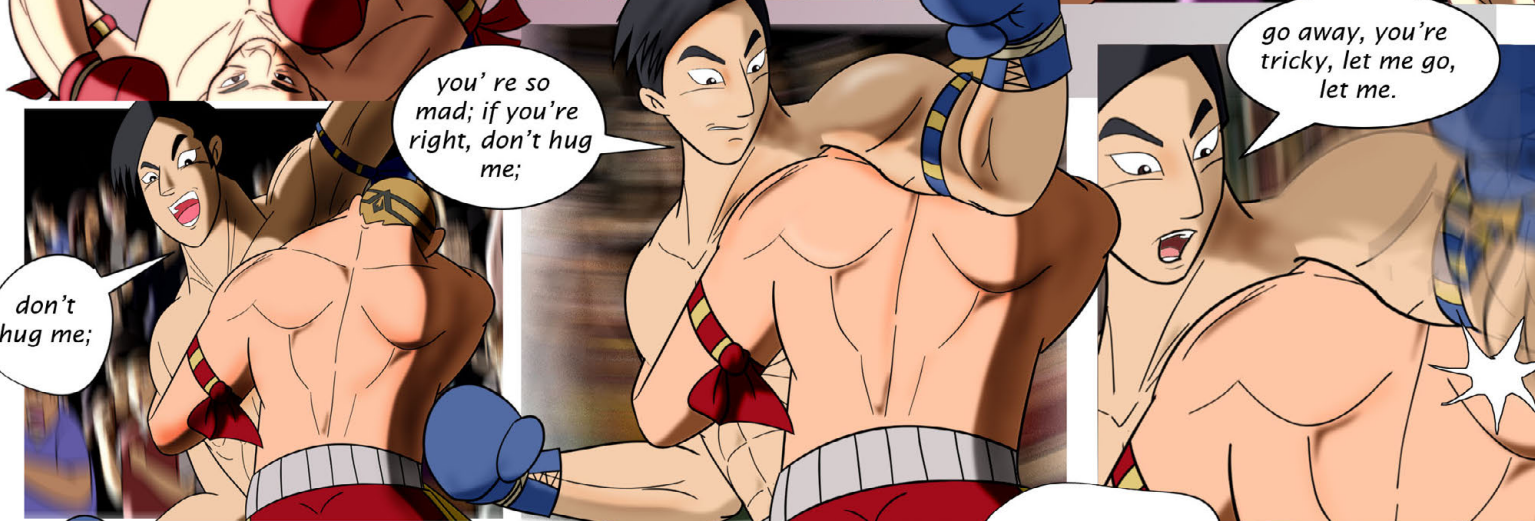

Don't think I can't make you to fall down.

Eh! What is this? Heh.....

Ha, ha, come on!

you're so mad; if you're right, don't hug me;

don't hug me;

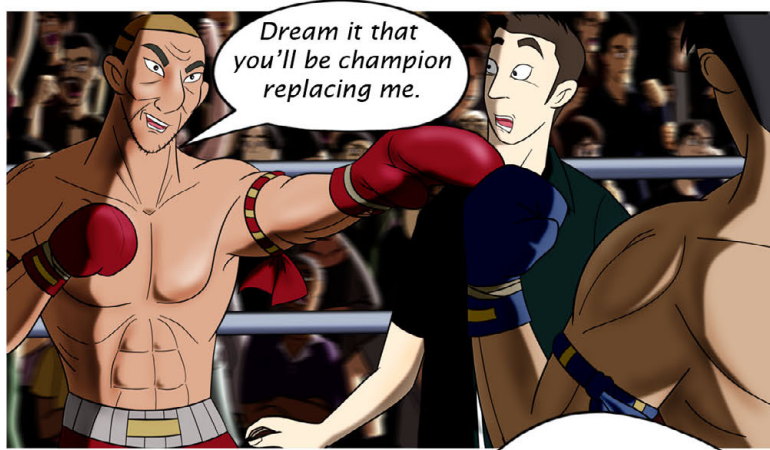

go away, you're tricky, let me go, let me.

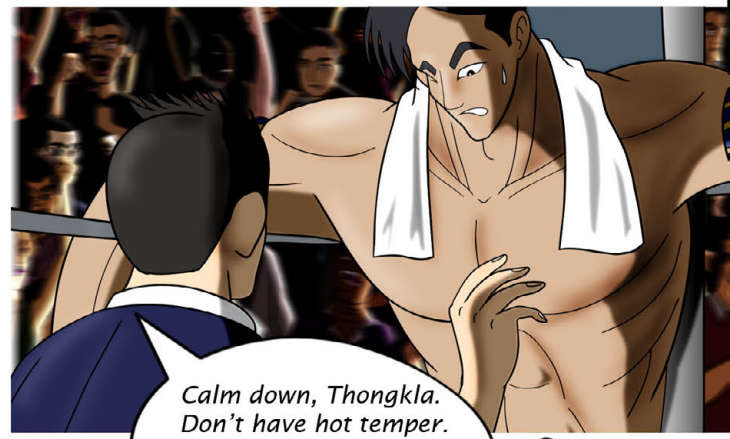

Separate, the round's over.

Ha! Ha! I said you couldn't hurt me.

You're so mad. If you're right, fight with me skillfully.

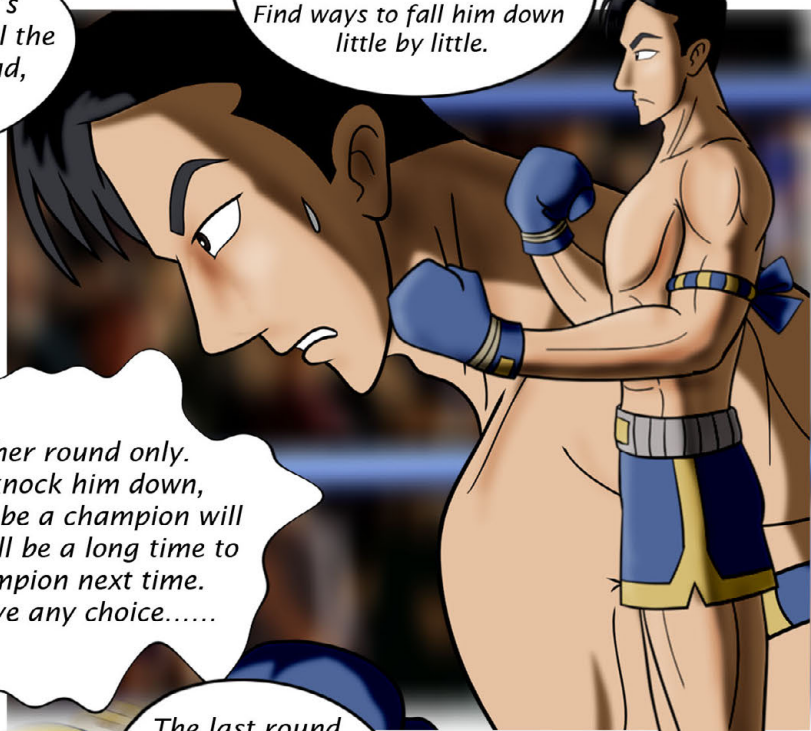

Dream it that you'll be champion replacing me.

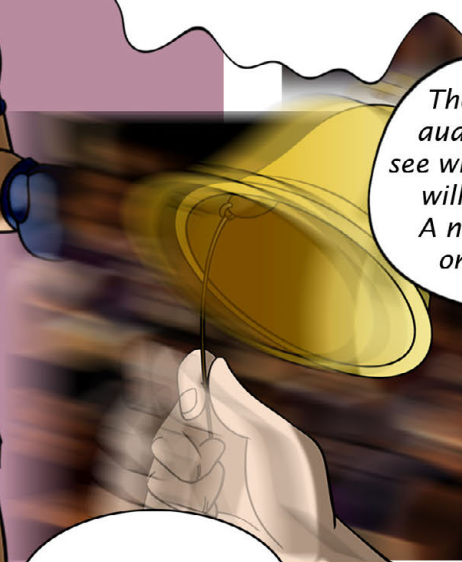

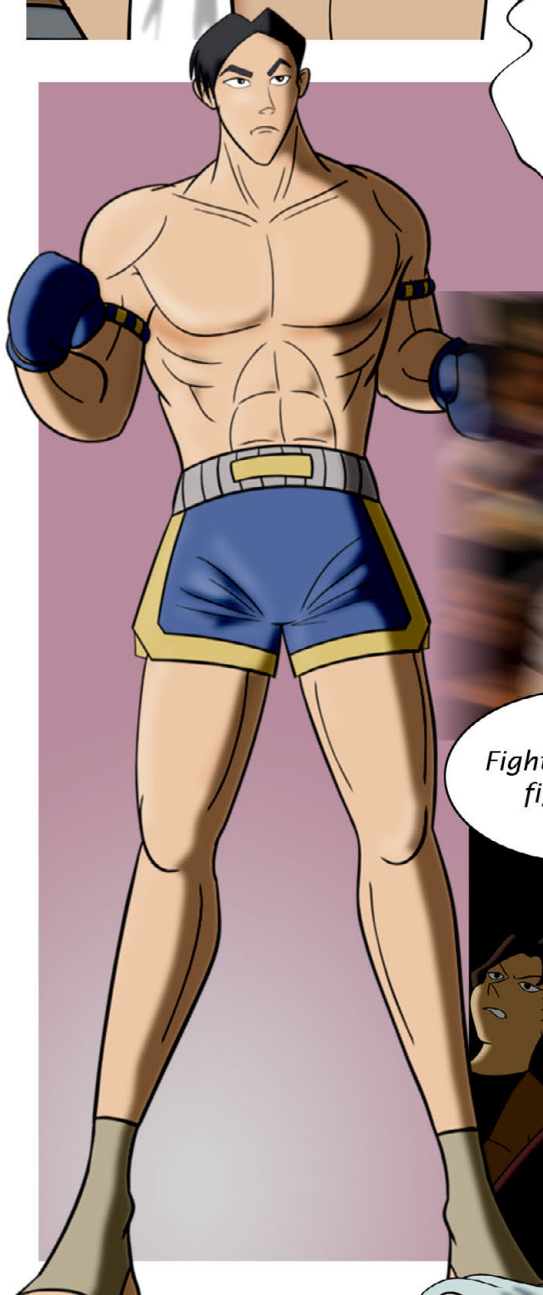

Calm down, Thongkla. Don't have hot temper. Bernard's exhausted. Find ways to fall him down little by little.

I know, but he's tricky; he flees all the time, it's so mad, just another round only. If I can't knock him down, a chance to be a champion will go away. It'll be a long time to be a champion next time. I don't have any choice.....

The last round, audiences. You'll see whether Thongkla will win Bernard. A new champion or an old one?

Fight! my dear, fight him.

Please be patient, my dear, for the next few minutes, our future will be changed.

